

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE COPY

FOR

HIGH COUNTRY NEWS

Public disclosure requirements that apply to tax-exempt organizations

In general, exempt organizations must make available for public inspection certain annual returns and applications for exemption, and must provide copies of such returns and applications to individuals who request them. Copies usually must be provided immediately in the case of in-person requests, and within 30 days in the case of written requests. The tax-exempt organization may charge a reasonable copying fee plus actual postage, if any. The IRS must also make this same information available to the general public.

An exempt organization must make available for public inspection its exemption application. An exemption application includes the Form 1023 (for organizations recognized as exempt under § 501(c)(3)), Form 1024 (for organizations recognized as exempt under most other paragraphs of § 501(c)), or the letter submitted under the paragraphs for which no form is prescribed, together with supporting documents and any letter or document issued by the IRS concerning the application.

In addition, an exempt organization must make available for public inspection and copying its annual return. Such returns include Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, Form 990-EZ - Short Form Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, and Form 990-PF - Return of Private Foundation.

An organization exempt under § 501(c)(3) must make available for public inspection and copying any Form 990-T - Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return, filed after August 17, 2006. Returns must be available for a three-year period beginning with the due date of the return (including any extension of time for filing). For this purpose, the return includes any schedules, attachments, or supporting documents that relate to the imposition of tax on the unrelated business income of the charity.

With the exception of private foundations, an exempt organization is not required to disclose the name and address of any contributor to the organization. Attached to this letter is a copy of your Form 990 – Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax for the current year that you can use to meet the above public disclosure requirement. Schedule B has been omitted where applicable.
