Special Issue on Finance and Investment

Call for Papers

In finance, the expected future benefit from investment is called a return (to investment). The return may consist of capital gain and/or investment income, including dividends, interest, rental income etc. The economic return to an investment is the appropriately discounted value of the future returns to the investment.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original researches and review articles on exploring finance and investment. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Asset M&A
- Market drivers: corporate buyers
- Private equity and infrastructure investment
- Resource assessment accuracy
- Financial software and renewables
- Developments in the debt markets
- Tax equity

Authors should read over the journal's Authors' Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal at Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the "Special Issue" under your manuscript title. The research field "Special Issue - Finance and Investment" should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	March 24th, 2017
