

Special Issue on Behavioral Psychology

Call for Papers

Behavioral psychology is the study of how our behaviors relate to our mind. The researchers and scientists who study behavioral psychology are trying to understand why we behave the way we do and they are concerned with discovering patterns in our actions and behaviors.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Behavioral Psychology. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Applied behavior analysis
- Patterns of behaviors
- Cognitive theory
- Behavioral theory
- Behavior pathology
- Behavioral and functional assessment
- Behavior change
- Affect, behavior and cognition
- Psychological assessment
- Behavioral interventions
- Positive/negative reinforcement
- Motivation and behavior
- Anxiety and behavior
- Social behavior
- Interpersonal behaviors and skills
- Personality and behavior
- Behavior and mental health
- Child and adolescent behavior

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Behavioral Psychology” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	June 5th, 2023
Publication Date	August 2023
