We are pleased that reviewer 1 considers the manuscript to be of relevance and of interest to ACP readers. We have addressed the specific comments raised by reviewer 1. Furthermore, then the ACPD manuscript has been proof-read by a fellow scientist with English as mother tongue. Below we have answered each of the questions by reviewer 1 and also provided a full list of changes due to both the proof reading and the requests from reviewer 2, especially with respect to a discussion of the national emission ceilings (NEC).

Hihgly regards Carsten Ambelas Skjøth and Camilla Geels
