How to walk from Frizinghall Station to Lister Park

Turn left and walk down Frizinghall Road, then take the first left, which is still Frizinghall Road (photo 3) and continue walking. You will cross over the railway line.

If you arrive at Frizinghall Station on a train bound for Shipley, Skipton or Ilkley, you will arrive on Platform 1 (photo 4). Exit the train station (photo 5) which will bring you out onto Frizinghall Road

Continue walking down Frizinghall Road (photo 6). At the end of Frizinghall Road you will meet Keighley Road. Directly in front of you will be Lister Park, and you will also see a large stone gate with turrets (photo 7). This is the entrance to Lister Park. Carefully cross over the road, and enter Lister Park through this gate

How to walk from the bus stop to Lister Park

If you arrive on a bus bound for Bradford Interchange, you will get off at the bus stop in photo 8. It is next to Bradford Grammar School. You will need to cross over Keighley Road to the other side. If you arrive on a bus bound for Shipley, Baildon, or Bingley, you will get off at the bus stop in photo 9. You will already be on the right side of the road for Lister Park.

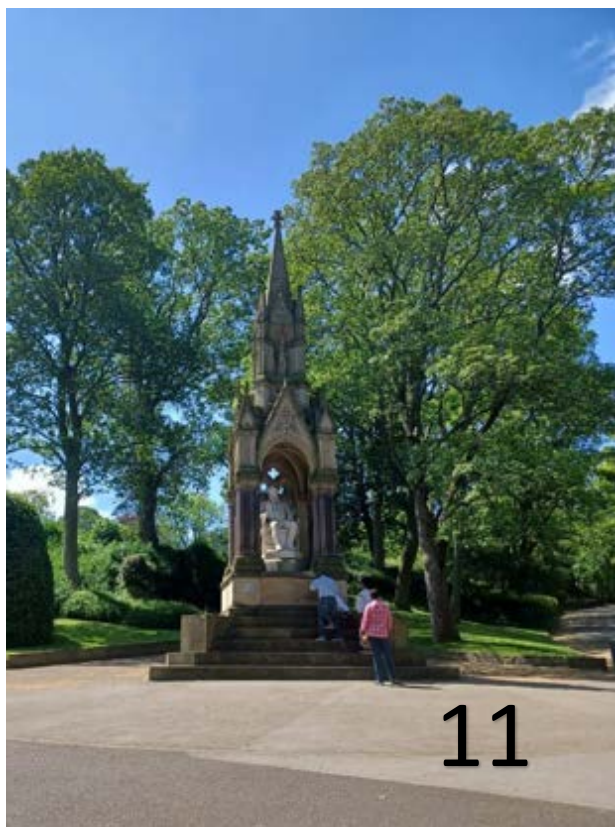

Once you are on the correct side of the road, walk up Keighley Road, keeping the park on your left. Walk towards the large set of traffic lights a short distance from the bus stops. You will see a large stone gate with turrets on your left (photo 10). Enter the park through this gate.

How to walk from Lister Park to Cartwright Hall

You should have arrived into Lister Park through the large stone gate in photos 7 and 10. In front of you will be a statue (photo 11). Follow the path round to the left and through the park.

You will soon see the lake on your right, and the Boating Pavilion and Café. Follow the path round the right of the Boating Pavilion, keeping the lake on your right (photo 12) You should also now see Cartwright Hall straight ahead

Follow the path up to Cartwright Hall. This will bring you to the back of the building. If anyone in your group needs the accessible entrance, this is a large wooden door at the back of the building (photo 13). Ring the green doorbell to the left of the door to gain entry. The rest of your group should walk around the outside of the building to the front of Cartwright Hall (photo 14) where they will be to enter via the main entrance.
