Here is how to walk from Keighley Train Station and/or Keighley Bus Station to Cliffe Castle

As you approach the junction, Cavendish Street is the turning to your right. Cross over the junction and head down Cavendish Street (photo 3)

If you have arrived by bus at Keighley Bus Station, exit the station via the Cavendish Street exit. As you get off the bus and enter the bus station, with the buses behind you, this exit will be on the far left (photo 4). Exit the bus station using the Cavendish Street exit (photo 5).

When you reach the end of Cavendish Street, you will reach North Street and see Keighley Library straight ahead (photo 7). Cross over so you are on the same side of the road as the library, then head right up North Street (photo 8)

Continue up North Street. You are looking for a turning on the left called Spring Gardens Lane (photo 9). Walk up Spring Gardens Lane. After a short distance, you will see a path leading to the right (photo 10). There is a brown sign marked “Cliffe Castle” pointing to it

Head down this path. In front of you, you will see a set of gates. These are the gates to the Holly Lodge entrance to Cliffe Castle Park. Go through them into the park. You should now be able to see Cliffe Castle Museum. Follow the path round to the left that leads to Cliffe Castle Museum.

As you approach Cliffe Castle, you will see the main entrance (photo 11) This is through the doorway under the arch. If you need the accessible entrance, head to the white door for the conservatory, just to the left of the main entrance (photo 12) and ring the doorbell.
