

ACTIVISION BLIZZARD
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY

It is the policy of Activision Blizzard to:

1. Recruit, hire, train and promote, into all job classifications, the most qualified persons without regard to gender, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, creed, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, age or because of genetic information or any other basis protected by applicable federal, state, or local law.
2. Make employment and promotional decisions by utilizing reasonable standards based on the individual's qualifications and valid job requirements, as they relate to a particular job vacancy, in accordance with equal employment opportunity requirements.
3. Administer all personnel actions relating to the terms, conditions, and privileges in a nondiscriminatory manner.

Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment, upgrading, demotion, transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship.

Sarah Phelps, Director, Employee Experience is the designated EEO Compliance Coordinator at the company. The EEO Compliance Coordinator's responsibility is to implement and to monitor adherence to this policy. Employees should feel free to contact anyone on the ASK List*, including our EEO Compliance Coordinator Sarah Phelps at Sarah.Phelps@activision.com should they experience any problems.

Any employees or applicants with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are responsible to bring these issues to the attention of someone on the ASK List*, which includes the EEO Compliance Coordinator. Activision Blizzard does not tolerate retaliation against employees or applicants who (1) file a complaint with Activision Blizzard or with federal, state, or local agencies; (2) assist or participate in any investigation, compliance review, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state, or local equal employment opportunity or affirmative action statute; (3) oppose any act or practice made unlawful by federal, state, or local law requiring equal employment opportunity or affirmative action; or (4) exercise any other employment right protected by federal, state, or local law or its implementing regulations.

I personally make my commitment to all of the objectives of equal employment opportunity and expect the cooperation and participation of all employees of the company in achieving these objectives.

Aug 31, 2023

Date

Julie Hodges, ABK Chief Human Resources Officer

Internal links (VPN required)*