

Before using Apple TV, review the Apple TV User Guide. Go to support.apple.com/guide/tv. You can also use Apple Books to download the user guide (where available). Retain documentation for future reference.

Safety and Handling

On Apple TV, go to Settings > General > Legal & Regulatory > Safety for important safety instructions. Or see "Safety, handling, and support" in the Apple TV User Guide.

WARNING: Failure to follow these safety instructions could result in fire, electric shock, or other injury or damage to Apple TV or other property. Read all safety information before using Apple TV.

Battery and Charging

Don't attempt to replace the remote battery yourself—you may damage the battery, which could cause overheating, fire, and injury. The lithium-ion battery in the remote should be serviced or recycled by Apple or an authorized service provider, and must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste. Dispose of batteries according to your local environmental laws and guidelines. For information about Apple lithium-ion batteries and battery service and recycling, go to apple.com/batteries/service-and-recycling. For information about charging, see "Important safety information" in the Apple TV User Guide.

Regulatory

Regulatory certification information is available on device. Go to Settings > General > Legal & Regulatory > Regulatory. Additional regulatory information is in "Safety, handling, and support" in the Apple TV User Guide.

FCC and ISED Canada Compliance

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules and ISED Canada licence-exempt RSS standard(s). Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

ENERGY STAR® Compliance

Apple TV meets the ENERGY STAR guidelines for energy efficiency. Reducing energy consumption saves money and helps conserve valuable resources. For more information about ENERGY STAR, go to energystar.gov.

To save energy, Apple TV is set to sleep after 15 minutes of user inactivity. To put Apple TV to sleep immediately, or to wake Apple TV, press the Power button on the remote. To change sleep settings, go to Settings > General > Sleep After.

European Union—Disposal Information

The symbol above means that according to local laws and regulations your product and/or its battery shall be disposed of separately from household waste. When this product reaches its end of life, take it to a collection point designated by local authorities. The separate collection and recycling of your product and/or its battery at the time of disposal will help conserve natural resources and ensure that it is recycled in a manner that protects human health and the environment.

Apple One-Year Limited Warranty Summary

Apple warrants the included hardware product and accessories against defects in materials and workmanship for one year from the date of original retail purchase. Apple does not warrant against normal wear and tear, nor damage caused by accident or abuse. To obtain service, call Apple or visit an Apple Store or an Apple Authorized Service Provider—available service options are dependent on the country in which service is requested and may be restricted to the original country of sale. Call charges and international shipping charges may apply, depending on the location. Subject to the full terms and detailed information on obtaining service available at apple.com/legal/warranty and support.apple.com, if you submit a valid claim under this warranty, Apple will either repair, replace, or refund your Apple TV at its own discretion. Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws. You may be required to furnish proof of purchase details when making a claim under this warranty.

For Australian Consumers: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.
