COMMISSION DECISION

of 23 May 2003

establishing special conditions for placing on the market of aquaculture animals species considered not susceptible to certain diseases and the products thereof

(notified under document number C(2003) 1641)

(Text with EEA relevance)

(2003/390/EC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Directive 91/67/EEC of 28 January 1991 concerning the animal health conditions governing the placing on the market of aquaculture animals and products ⁽¹⁾, as last amended by Directive 98/45/EC ⁽²⁾, and in particular Article 10(3), Article 14(1) and (3) and the second subparagraph of Article 14(4) thereof.

Whereas:

- (1) Directive 91/67/EEC lays down requirements and provisions for the establishment of appropriate conditions for the placing on the market in zones and farms with approved programme or status, of live farmed fish, molluscs and crustaceans, their eggs and gametes, not belonging to the susceptible species referred to in Annex A, column 2, list II, to that Directive.
- (2) Directive 91/67/EEC provides for a derogation from those requirements for species which are not a carrier of the diseases concerned, i.e. where it is shown that there is no passive transmission of those diseases when aquaculture animals, their eggs or gametes, not belonging to the susceptible species, are moved from a non-approved zone to an approved zone. That Directive also provides for the establishment of a list of the aquaculture animals to which that derogation is to apply.
- (3) There is sufficient evidence that certain mollusc species are not susceptible to and do not passively transmit bonamiosis (Bonamia ostreae) and marteiliosis (Marteilia refringens). They should therefore be included in the list.

- (4) Directive 91/67/EEC provides that farmed live fish and molluscs are to be accompanied by movement documents where they are introduced into zones and farms with approved programme or status. Commission Decision 93/22/EEC of 11 December 1992 laying down the model of the movement documents referred to in Article 14 of Council Directive 91/67/EEC ⁽³⁾, sets out those model movement documents. For the sake of clarity, the model movement documents should be updated and Decision 93/22/EEC should be replaced by this Decision.
- (5) Directive 91/67/EEC provides that the placing on the market of molluscs, referred to in Annex A, column 2, list II to that Directive, is to be subject to additional guarantees, including guarantees relating to the origin of the molluscs. The application of those guarantees lead to difficulties in the supply of the molluscs. Accordingly, Commission Decision 93/55/EEC ⁽⁴⁾, as amended by Decision 93/169/EEC ⁽⁵⁾, amends the guarantees for the introduction of molluscs into zones for which a programme for demonstration of freedom from Bonamia ostreae and Marteilia refringens has been approved. The provisions of Decision 93/55/EEC should be updated and in the interests of clarity replaced by the provisions of this Decision.
- (6) This Decision takes into account new scientific data and recommendations from the International office of Epizootic Diseases (OIE).
- (7) This Decision is without prejudice to public health certification requirements, and therefore its model document should not be required when aquaculture animals, their eggs and gametes, are placed on the market directly for human consumption.

⁽⁴⁾ OJ L 14, 22.1.1993, p. 24.

⁽⁵⁾ OJ L 71, 24.3.1993, p. 16.

- (8) A sufficient period of time should be provided for the implementation of these new certification requirements.
- (9) The measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Committee on the Food Chain and Animal Health,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

Scope and subject-matter

1. This Decision lays down:
- (a) animal health conditions for the placing on the market of aquaculture animals, their eggs and gametes, not susceptible to the diseases referred to in Annex A, column 1, list II to Directive 91/67/EEC, in zones and farms with approved programme or status;
- (b) a model of the movement document provided for in Article 14(1) and (3) of Directive 91/67/EEC; and
- (c) a list of the aquaculture animals species to which the derogation provided for in the first subparagraph of Article 14(4) of that Directive is applicable.
2. This Decision shall not apply where the aquaculture animals, their eggs and gametes, referred to in paragraph 1, are placed on the market directly for human consumption.

Article 2

For the purpose of this Decision, the definitions in Article 2 of Directive 91/67/EEC, Article 2 of Council Directive 93/53/EEC of 24 June 1993 introducing minimum Community measures for the control of certain fish diseases ⁽¹⁾, as last amended by Commission Decision 2001/288/EC ⁽²⁾, and Article 2 of Council Directive 95/70/EC of 22 December 1995 introducing minimum Community measures for the control of certain diseases affecting molluscs ⁽³⁾, as last amended by Commission Decision 2003/83/EC ⁽⁴⁾, should apply.

Article 3

Movement documents

When introduced into zones and farms with approved programme or status, all aquaculture animals covered by this Decision, their eggs and gametes shall be accompanied by, and comply with the requirements referred in the model movement document set out in Annex I, taking into account the explanatory notes in Annex II.

Article 4

Non carrier species

Pursuant to the second subparagraph of Article 14(4) of Directive 91/67/EEC, Annex III to this Decision sets out the list of aquaculture animals species to which the derogation referred to in its first subparagraph is applicable.

Article 5

Repeal

Decisions 93/22/EEC and 93/55/EEC are repealed. References to the repealed Decisions shall be construed as references to this Decision.

Article 6
