

COMMISSION DECISION

of 15 November 2007

derogating from the rules of origin set out in Council Decision 2001/822/EC as regards certain fishery products imported from the Falkland Islands

(notified under document number C(2007) 5393)

(2007/767/EC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

situation of the Falkland Islands and cannot be remedied by increasing the presence of Community fishing fleets in the Falkland area.

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Decision 2001/822/EC of 27 November 2001 on the association of the overseas countries and territories with the European Community ('Overseas Association Decision')<sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 37 of Annex III thereto,

Whereas:

(1) On 7 August 2002 the Commission adopted Decision 2002/644/EC<sup>(2)</sup> derogating from the definition of the concept of 'originating products'; to take account of the special situation of the Falkland Islands with regard to various species of frozen fish of CN heading 0303, various species of frozen fish fillets of CN heading 0304 and frozen Loligo squid and Illex squid of CN heading 0307. That derogation expired on 31 August 2007.

(2) On 31 July 2007 the Falkland Islands requested a new derogation from the rules of origin set out in Annex III to Decision 2001/822/EC for a period of five years. This request covers a total annual quantity of 16 200 tonnes of frozen fish of CN heading 0303, 5 100 tons of frozen fish fillets of CN heading 0304, 57 900 tons of frozen Loligo squid and 47 200 tons of frozen Illex squid of CN heading 0307.

(3) The Falkland Islands have based their request on the fact that for frozen fish, frozen fish fillets and Loligo squid, it is becoming increasingly difficult to recruit crews for their fishing vessels and factory ships from the OCTs, the Community or ACP States. As regards Illex squid, the Falkland Islands indicate that not all specific fishing expertise required is currently available from crew from the OCTs, the Community or ACP States. The lack of crew from the OCTs, the Community or the ACP states, stems in particular from the specific geographical

(4) A derogation should be granted from the rules of origin set out in Annex III to Decision 2001/822/EC for products falling within CN headings 0303 and 0304, Loligo squid of CN code 0307 49 35 and Illex squid of CN code 0307 99 11. This derogation is justified under Article 37(1) of that Annex, in particular as regards the development of an existing local industry. Derogation from Article 3(2) d of Annex III will provide greater security for the local fishing companies enabling investment in new activities and markets. Use of the derogation granted in 2002 remained extremely low (51 620 tons for CN heading 0303, 35 320 tons for CN heading 0304, 52 348 tons for Loligo squid and 6 720 tons for Illex squid over a period of five years). The derogation should therefore be granted for the following total annual quantities, based on the total annual quantities as covered by the derogation in 2002 i.e. 12 500 tons for CN heading 0303, 5 100 tons for CN heading 0304, 34 600 tons for Loligo squid of CN 0307 49 35 and 31 000 tons for Illex squid of CN 0307 99 11.

(5) Subject to compliance with certain conditions relating to quantities, surveillance and duration, the derogation would not cause serious injury to an established industry of the Community or one or more of the Member States.

(6) Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2454/93 of 2 July 1993 laying down provisions for the implementation of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92 establishing the Common Customs Code<sup>(3)</sup> lays down rules for the management of tariff quotas. Those rules should be applied mutatis mutandis to the management of the quantity in respect of which the derogation in question is granted.

(7) As Decision 2002/822/EC expires on 31 December 2011, it should be laid down that the derogation will continue to apply after 31 December 2011 if a new decision is adopted on the association of the overseas countries and territories with the European Community or if Decision 2001/822/EC is extended.

- (8) The measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Customs Code Committee,
