COURT PROCEEDINGS

COURT OF JUSTICE

Judgment of the Court (Ninth Chamber) of 10 January 2019 (request for a preliminary ruling from the Korkein hallinto-oikeus — Finland) — procedure initiated by A Oy

(Case C-410/17) <sup>(1)</sup>

(Reference for a preliminary ruling — Value added tax (VAT) — Directive 2006/112/EC — Article 2(1)(a) and (c) — Article 14(1) — Article 24(1) — Transactions for consideration — Transactions for consideration constituted partly by services or goods — Demolition contract — Purchase contract for dismantling)

(2019/C 72/02)

Language of the case: Finnish

Referring court

Korkein hallinto-oikeus

Party to the main proceedings

A Oy

Operative part of the judgment

1. Article 2(1)(a) and (c) of Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax, read together with Article 14(1) and Article 24(1) thereof, must be interpreted as meaning that, where, pursuant to a demolition contract, the service provider, namely a demolition company, is required to carry out demolition works and may, in so far as the demolition waste contains scrap metal, resell that scrap metal, that contract consists of a supply of services for consideration, that is to say the performance of demolition works, and also a supply of goods for consideration, that is the supply of the scrap metal, if the purchaser, that is to say the demolition company, attributes a value to that supply of goods, which it factors in when calculating the price quoted for the performance of the demolition works, that supply of goods being, however, subject to value added tax only if it is made by a taxable person acting as such.
2. Article 2(1)(a) and (c) of Directive 2006/112, read together with Article 14(1) and Article 24(1) thereof, must be interpreted as meaning that, where, pursuant to a purchase contract for dismantling, the purchaser, namely a demolition company, purchases goods to be dismantled and undertakes, subject to a contractual penalty, to demolish or dismantle and dispose of those goods and to dispose of the waste within a period fixed in the contract, that contract consists of a supply of goods for consideration, that is the supply of goods to be dismantled, which is subject to value added tax only if it is made by a taxable person acting as such, which is for the referring court to ascertain. In so far as the purchaser is required to demolish or dismantle and dispose of those goods and to dispose of the resulting waste, thereby specifically meeting the needs of the seller, which is for the referring court to ascertain, that contract also includes a supply of services for consideration, that is the performance of demolition works or dismantling and waste disposal, if that purchaser attributes a value to that supply of goods which it factors in to the price quoted as a factor reducing the purchase price of the goods to be dismantled, which is for the referring court to ascertain.

Judgment of the Court (First Chamber) of 10 January 2019 (request for a preliminary ruling from the Rechtbank Noord-Nederland — Netherlands) — criminal proceedings against ET

(Reference for a preliminary ruling — Judicial cooperation in criminal matters — Principle of mutual recognition of confiscation orders — Framework Decision 2006/783/JHA — Article 12(1) and (4) — Law governing the execution — Law of the executing State authorising recourse to imprisonment for the non-execution of the confiscation order — Conformity — Law of the issuing State also authorising recourse to a term of imprisonment — Lack of effect)

(2019/C 72/03)

Language of the case: Dutch

Referring court

Rechtbank Noord-Nederland

Party to the main, criminal proceedings

ET

Operative part of the judgment

1. Article 12(1) and (4) of Council Framework Decision 2006/783/JHA of 6 October 2006 on the application of the principle of mutual recognition to confiscation orders must be interpreted as not precluding the application of the legislation of an executing State, such as that at issue in the main proceedings, which, for the purpose of enforcing a confiscation order adopted in an issuing State, authorises, where necessary, a term of imprisonment to be imposed.
2. The fact that the legislation of the issuing State also authorises possible recourse to a term of imprisonment has no bearing on the application of such a measure in the executing State.

Request for a preliminary ruling from the Tribunal Económico Administrativo Central de Madrid (Spain) lodged on 7 November 2018 — Ente Público Radio Televisión Madrid v Agencia Estatal de la Administración Tributaria (AEAT)

(Case C-694/18)

(2019/C 72/04)

Language of the case: Spanish

Referring court

Tribunal Económico Administrativo Central de Madrid

Parties to the main proceedings

Applicant: Ente Público Radio Televisión Madrid

Defendant: Agencia Estatal de la Administración Tributaria (AEAT)

Questions referred

1. Is it possible to treat entities like those described, together with the bodies governed by public law which create them, as single taxable persons for VAT purposes, as defined by Article 11 of Directive 2006/112/EC? <sup>(1)</sup>
2. If the answer to the previous question is affirmative, is it necessary to consider that the funding received by such entities from the bodies governed by public law which create them cannot under any circumstances be classified as consideration for the provision of services subject to VAT?
3. As regards the deduction of input VAT payments by those entities, must it be the single taxable person which, as such, calculates the deductible amount by applying Article 168 of Directive 2006/112/EC on the basis of the activities which it carries out?
4. In particular, and as far as public service television activities are concerned, assuming that those entities are capable of having a dual nature and also assuming that, together with the bodies governed by public law which are their majority shareholders, they are treated as single taxable persons, must only the portion of input VAT which can be considered to relate to their economic activity be treated as deductible?

Questions referred

1. Is it possible to treat entities like those described, together with the bodies governed by public law which create them, as single taxable persons for VAT purposes, as defined by Article 11 of Directive 2006/112/EC? <sup>(1)</sup>

2. If the answer to the previous question is affirmative, is it necessary to consider that the funding received by such entities from the bodies governed by public law which create them cannot under any circumstances be classified as consideration for the provision of services subject to VAT?
3. As regards the deduction of input VAT payments by those entities, must it be the single taxable person which, as such, calculates the deductible amount by applying Article 168 of Directive 2006/112/EC on the basis of the activities which it carries out?
4. In particular, and as far as public service television activities are concerned, assuming that those entities are capable of having a dual nature and also assuming that, together with the bodies governed by public law which are their majority shareholders, they are treated as single taxable persons, must only the portion of input VAT which can be considered to relate to their economic activity be treated as deductible?

1. Is the amount of the advantage received from an alleged infringement of a trade mark by a private individual relevant when assessing whether his conduct is the use of a trade mark in the course of trade within the meaning of Article 5(1) of the Trade Marks Directive <sup>(1)</sup> or a private matter? If a private individual uses a trade mark, does use in the course of trade require the satisfaction of criteria other than the requirement of economic advantage obtained from the transaction in question concerning the trade mark?
2. If the economic advantage must have a certain degree of substantiality, and a person, on the basis of the triviality of the economic advantage received by him and the non-fulfilment of other possible criteria of use in the course of trade, may not be regarded as having used a trade mark in the course of his own trade, is the condition of use in the course of trade within the meaning of Article 5(1) of the Trade Marks Directive satisfied if a private individual uses a trade mark on behalf of another person as part of that other person's trade, where he is not, however, an employee in the service of that other person?
3. Does a person keeping goods use a trade mark in relation to goods within the meaning of Article 5(1) and (3)(b) of the Trade Marks Directive if the goods marked with the trade mark, sent to a Member State and released into free circulation there, are received on behalf of a reselling company and stored by a person, into whose possession the goods have passed, who does not carry on the importation and storage of goods and who does not have a licence to operate a customs warehouse or tax warehouse?
4. May a person be regarded as importing goods marked with a trade mark within the meaning of Article 5(3)(c) of the Trade Marks Directive if the goods were not imported at the person's request, but the person provided his address to a reseller and received on behalf of the reseller the goods released into free circulation in the Member State, kept them in his possession for some weeks, and released them for transmission to a third country outside the European Union for the purpose of resale there?

Questions referred

1. If a seller of a property, on the basis of the rules introduced by the Member State in accordance with Article 188(2) of the VAT Directive,<sup>(1)</sup> has not adjusted a deduction of input tax because the purchaser intends to use the property exclusively for transactions giving rise to a right of deduction, does that then preclude, in a case where the adjustment period continues to run, the purchaser being required to adjust the deduction at a subsequent time when the purchaser in turn transfers the property to someone who does not intend to use the property for such transactions?
2. Does it alter the answer to the first question if the first transfer referred to in that question constitutes a transfer of assets as referred to in Article 19 of the VAT Directive?

Appeal brought on 17 December 2018 by the Hellenic Republic against the judgment of the General Court (Third Chamber) delivered on 4 October 2018 in Case T-272/16 Greece v Commission

(Case C-797/18 P)

(2019/C 72/13)

Language of the case: Greek

Parties

Appellant: Hellenic Republic (represented by: G. Kanellopoulos, E. Leftheriotou and A. Vasilopoulou, acting as Agents)

Other party to the proceedings: European Commission

Form of order sought

The appellant claims that its appeal should be upheld; that the judgment under appeal of the General Court of the European Union of 4 October 2018 in Case T-272/16 should be set aside to the extent that the General Court dismissed its action; that the action of the Hellenic Republic of 25 June 2016 should be upheld; that Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2016/417 of 17 March 2016<sup>(1)</sup> should be annulled, in so far as by means of that decision: (a) financial corrections amounting to EUR 166 797 866,22 are imposed for the claim years 2012-2013 in the decoupled direct aid sector, (b) an overall financial correction amounting to EUR 3 880 460,50 is imposed for the financial years 2010-2013 in the sector of Rural Development EAFRD, Axes 1 + 3 — Investment Oriented Measures 125 and 121 (2007-2013); and that the Commission should be ordered to pay the costs.

Grounds of appeal and main arguments

In support of its appeal the appellant relies on six grounds of appeal:

- A. With respect to the part of the judgment under appeal that deals with the first, second and third pleas in law of the action and concerns the correction imposed in the decoupled direct aid sector there are three grounds of appeal.

The first ground of appeal is based on the misinterpretation and misapplication of Article 2 of Commission Regulation (EC) No 796/2004<sup>(2)</sup> of 21 April 2004 on the definition of pasture and on the insufficient and erroneous statement of reasons in the judgment under appeal.

The second ground of appeal is based on the misinterpretation of the Guidelines (Document VI/5330/97) with respect to whether the conditions for the imposition of a 25 % financial correction are met, misinterpretation and misapplication of Articles 43, 44 and 137 of Regulation (EC) No 73/2009,<sup>(3)</sup> insufficient and contradictory statement of reasons, and distortion of the sense of the Conciliation Body's summary report.

Further, by the third ground of appeal the appellant challenges the misinterpretation and misapplication of Article 31(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1290/2005<sup>(4)</sup> and the related Guidelines, the ne bis in idem principle, the principle of proportionality, and an insufficient and contradictory statement of reasons.

- B. With respect to the part of the judgment under appeal that deals with the fourth and fifth pleas in law of the action in relation to the correction which was imposed in the sector of Measure 125 of the Rural Development Programme, there are two grounds of appeal. The first (the fourth ground of appeal) is based on the misinterpretation and misapplication of Article 71(2) and (3) of Council Regulation (EC) No 1698/2005,<sup>(5)</sup> and the insufficient and erroneous statement of reasons in the judgment under appeal, while by the second (the fifth ground of appeal), the judgment under appeal is claimed to have erroneously interpreted and applied Article 31(4) of Regulation (EC) No 1290/2005, and further, is criticised as having an insufficient and erroneous statement of reasons.
- C. Last, with respect to the part of the judgment under appeal that rejects the sixth and seventh pleas in law of the action in relation to the correction which was imposed in the sector of Measure 121 of the Rural Development Programme, it is claimed by the sixth ground of appeal, in its two limbs, that there was an erroneous interpretation and application of Article 73 of Commission Regulation (EC) No 817/2004,<sup>(6)</sup> an insufficient statement of reasons and distortion of the sense of the evidence.

Appeal brought on 18 December 2018 by Terna SpA against the judgment of the General Court (Fifth Chamber) delivered on 18 October 2018 in Case T-387/16 *Terna v Commission

Parties

Appellant: Terna SpA (represented by: F. Covone, A. Police, L. Di Via, D. Carria, F. Degni, avvocati)

Other party to the proceedings: European Commission

Form of order sought

The appellant claims that the Court should:

- set aside and/or vary the judgment of the General Court of the European Union (Fifth Chamber) of 18 October 2018 delivered in Case T-387/16 and, consequently, principally, annul the decision of the European Commission reference ENER/SRD.3/JCM/cID (2016)2952913 of 23 May 2016, which merely confirms the previous measure Move.srd.3.dir(2015)2669621 of 6 July 2015, together with the measure of the European Commission reference SRD.3/JCM/cl/D (2016)4477388 of 14 June 2016 communicating Debit Note No 3241608548 ordering payment of EUR 494 871.39 by 28 July 2016, and consequently annulling the decision of the European Commission reference Move.srd.3.dir(2015)2669621 of 6 July 2015, in so far as that decision does not allow reimbursement of the costs incurred by Terna in connection with Project No 2009-E255/09-ENER/09-TEN-E-S 12.564583 and Project No 2007-E221/07/2007-TREN/07TEN-E-S 07.91403 and imposes an obligation to repay the sums granted in connection with those projects in the amounts set out in the table appended to the contested measure;

- in the alternative, annul the decision of the European Commission reference ENER/SRD.3/JCM/cID (2016)2952913 of 23 May 2016, together with the decision of the European Commission reference Move.srd3.dir(2015)2669621 of 6 July 2015, in so far as that decision does not provide for a reduction in the reimbursement of the costs incurred by Terna in connection with Project No 2009-E255/09-ENER/09-TEN-E-S 12.564583 and Project No 2007-E221/07/2007-TREN/07/TEN-E-S 07.91.403 commensurate with the profits made by CESI S.p.A;
- order the European Commission to pay the costs.

Grounds of appeal and main arguments

First ground of appeal: the judgment under appeal is incorrect in so far as the General Court ruled that there was no error in the classification of the relationship between the tasks and framework agreements entered into by Terna and CESI. — Misapplication of Articles 14 and 37 of Directive 2004/17/EC <sup>(1)</sup> in connection with the subcontracting of services — Failure to conduct inquiries and absence of adequate reasons in the contested measure. — Misapplication of Article III.7, paragraphs 1, 4 and 6, of Annex III to Decision D/207630 of 2008 and misapplication of Article III.3.7, paragraphs 1, 4 and 6, of Annex III to Decision D/7181 of 2010 resulting from the unjustifiable reduction in reimbursement for projects on the ground of an alleged failure on the part of Terna properly to apply formal procurement procedures. — Failure to conduct inquiries and absence of adequate reasons.

Second ground of appeal: the judgment under appeal is incorrect in so far as the General Court ruled that there were no technical reasons justifying the award of contracts to a particular operator without prior publication of a contract notice. — Misapplication of Article 40(3)(c) of Directive 2004/17/EC.

Third ground of appeal: the judgment under appeal is incorrect in so far as the General Court ruled that the principle of legitimate expectations had not been infringed. — Misapplication of Directive 2004/17/EC and failure to have regard for Terna's legitimate expectations by reason of the fact that the claims for reimbursement relating to the contracts forming part of the framework agreement were disallowed as ineligible, notwithstanding the publication of the contract award notice in the Official Journal of the European Union and the irrelevance of some of the amounts for the purposes of the application of European procedures.

Fourth ground of appeal: the judgment under appeal is incorrect in that it infringes the principles of reasonableness and proportionality by reason of the decision to disallow the claims for reimbursement in their entirety, rather than reducing them on a proportionate basis.

Action brought on 6 December 2018 — Phrenos and Others v Commission

(Case T-715/18)

(2019/C 72/40)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicants: Phrenos SPRL (Mont-sur-Marchienne, Belgium), Akkanto (Watermael-Boitsfort, Belgium) and Operational Management Solutions (Chaumont-Gistoux, Belgium) (represented by: R. Jafferli and R. van Melsen, lawyers)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul the decision of the European Commission, as notified to the applicants by letter of 27 November 2018, to award the contract for services relating to the planning, preparation, promotion and implementation of the 'European Development Days' event for its Directorate-General for International Cooperation and Development (EuropeAid/139729/DH/SER/BE) (2018/S 144- 328417) for the years 2019 to 2022 inclusive, to a third party;
- order the Commission to pay the costs of the main and interim proceedings.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicants rely on four pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the defendant failed to state reasons for its award decision.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the defendant failed to properly assess the (apparent) abnormally low prices of the chosen tender.
3. Third plea in law, alleging infringement of equal treatment with regard to the assessment of the tenders submitted.

4. Fourth plea in law, alleging that the award criterion for the evaluation of tenders applied by the defendant was illegal.

Action brought on 7 December 2018 — Barata v Parliament

(Case T-723/18)

(2019/C 72/41)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicant: João Miguel Barata (Evere, Belgium) (represented by: G. Pandey, D. Rovetta and V. Villante, lawyers)

Defendant: European Parliament

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul, first, the decision of 23 July 2018 of the European Parliament's General Secretariat, which rejected the applicant's complaints under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union, lodged on 2 February 2018 and 13 April 2018;
- annul, second, the decision of 22 March 2018 of the Director for Human Resources Development refusing to review the applicant's application to participate in the 2017 certification process training scheme and effectively excluding him from the 2017 certification process,
- annul, third, the decisions of 8 December 2017 and 21 December 2017 of the Director for Human Resources Development to consider the applicant's application as inadmissible, solely due to the lack of the index in his application for the purposes of the training programme under the 2017 certification procedure;
- annul, fourth, the Parliament's decision of 1 March 2018 notifying the applicant of general results and not including him in the list of the selected officials for 2017 certification procedure, as a result of inadmissibility of the application;
- annul, fifth, the internal notice of competition of 22 September 2017 circulated among the staff;
- annul, lastly, the resulting draft list of officials selected to take part in the aforesaid training programme.
- declare, as a preliminary matter, where appropriate, Article 90 of the Staff Regulation invalid and inapplicable in the present proceedings, under Article 277 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on four pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging breach of the duty to state reasons, breach of Article 25 of the Staff Regulations and breach of Article 296 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

2. Second plea in law, alleging breach of the principles of proportionality and sound administration, breach of the right of defence and rights to be heard of the applicant and thereby breach of Article 41 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union.
3. Third plea in law, alleging breach of the duty of good administration under Article 41 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and also alleging manifest error of assessment.
4. Fourth plea in law, alleging breach of Articles 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Regulation No 1/58,<sup>(1)</sup> and, further, breach of the principles of equal treatment and non-discrimination.

(Case T-734/18)

(2019/C 72/42)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicants: Sumitomo Chemical (UK) plc (London, United Kingdom) and Tenka Best, SL (Aiguafreda, Spain) (represented by: K. Van Maldegem, lawyer and V. McElwee, solicitor)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2018/1251 of 18 September 2018 not approving empenhrin as an existing active substance for use in biocidal products of product-type 18;<sup>(1)</sup>
- order the defendant to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicants rely on four pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the defendant failed to follow procedural steps that were required of it prior to adopting the contested act. Had such steps been followed, the act adopted might have been different.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the defendant committed a manifest error of assessment in the following areas: in not taking into account the procedural irregularities in the review of empenhrin; in permitting a hypothetical risk to give rise to the non-approval of empenhrin; in failing to take into account animal welfare requirements stemming from the Biocidal Products Regulation.<sup>(2)</sup>
3. Third plea in law, alleging that the defendant failed to ensure the first applicant's rights of defence
  - It is argued that the first applicant's comments and data have not been reviewed and its rights of defence necessarily infringed.

4. Fourth plea in law, alleging that the defendant has infringed the principle of sound administration.

- It is argued that the first applicant was not given the time to develop future data and that its data waivers were unfairly rejected.

(2019/C 72/43)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicant: Darment Oy (Helsinki, Finland) (represented by: C. Ginter, lawyer)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul the Commission decision to reduce the quota allocated to the applicant for the year 2019 for the placing of hydrofluorocarbons on the market about which the applicant was informed by the letter of 16 October 2018 Ares (2018)5305174 and email of 12 December 2018;
- order the defendant to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on two pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging infringement of Regulation (EU) 517/2014<sup>(1)</sup> from the defendant, by applying Article 25(2) strictly based on the data available in the registry set up under Article 17, even though a claim has been raised to correct the erroneous data in the registry.
2. Second plea in law, alleging a manifest error of assessment from the defendant for refusing to consider the applicant's explanations regarding placement of quota for bulk import on the market.

Parties

Applicants: Taminco BVBA (Gent, Belgium) and Arysta LifeScience Great Britain Ltd (Edinburgh, United Kingdom) (represented by: C. Mereu and M. Grunchard, lawyers)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1500 of 9 October 2018 concerning the non-renewal of approval of the active substance Thiram, and prohibiting the use and sale of seeds treated with plant protection products containing Thiram, <sup>(1)</sup> and remand the assessment of the active substance in question to the European Food Safety Authority (EFSA) and the defendant, as needed;
- order the prolongation of the expiry of the approval of the active substance in question to allow its reassessment;
- in the alternative, partially annul the contested regulation to the extent that it prohibits the renewal of the active substance in question with regard to seed treatment; and
- order the defendant to pay all the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicants rely on six pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the contested regulation is procedurally flawed since the defendant failed to take into account the withdrawal of the application requested by the applicants to renew the approval of Thiram for use as a foliar spray and maintain only the seed treatment use.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the contested regulation was adopted further to a manifest error of assessment.
3. Third plea in law, alleging that the contested regulation was adopted in violation of Article 4(5) of Regulation (EC) No 1107/2009. <sup>(2)</sup>
4. Fourth plea in law, alleging that the defendant acted ultra vires by making a proposal regarding the classification of the active substance in question.
5. Fifth plea in law, alleging that the contested regulation results from a procedure during which the applicants' rights of defence have not been respected.

6. Sixth plea in law, alleging that the contested regulation was adopted in breach of the precautionary principle and of the fundamental principles of European Union law of proportionality and equal treatment.

(2019/C 72/45)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicant: Marco Bronckers (Brussels, Belgium) (represented by: P. Kreijger, lawyer)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul the (implied) decision of the Commission of 17 October 2018 rejecting, under Regulation (EC) 1049/2001, <sup>(1)</sup> the applicant's confirmatory application for access to documents relating to the Agreement between the European Community and the United Mexican States on the mutual recognition and protection of designations for spirit drinks; <sup>(2)</sup>
- order the Commission to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on a single plea in law, alleging that the Commission violated Article 8 (3) of Regulation 1049/2001 by failing to decide within the prescribed time limit.

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul the Commission's contested decision of 9 August 2018 on the measures to certain Greek casinos SA.28973 — C 16/2010 (ex NN 22/2010, ex CP 318/2009)
- order the Commission to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on two alternative pleas in law to support that the contested decision infringed its procedural rights and therefore should be annulled.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the part of the contested decision in which the Commission examined whether the alleged state aid measure confers an 'attractiveness advantage' should be characterised as a decision not to raise objections adopted following the preliminary examination procedure. Therefore, the applicant claims that the Commission should have initiated the formal investigation procedure because there were serious doubts as to the existence of an attractiveness advantage financed through state resources.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the Commission was in any case obliged to reopen the formal investigation procedure by virtue of judgment T-425/11. In fact, the applicant claims that the Commission was, in principle, obliged to give the parties concerned notice to submit their comments before the adoption of the contested decision.

Action brought on 4 January 2019 — Scandlines Danmark et Scandlines Deutschland v Commission

(Case T-7/19)

(2019/C 72/53)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicants: Scandlines Danmark ApS (Copenhagen, Denmark) and Scandlines Deutschland GmbH (Hamburg, Germany) (represented by: L. Sandberg-Mørch, lawyer)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul the contested decision C(2018) 6268 final of 28 September 2018 on State aid SA.51981 (2018/FC);
- order the Commission to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on seven pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the Commission erred in law by finding that the State guarantees granted to A/S Femern Landanlæg have been authorised by the Construction Decision and that they do not constitute state aid.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the Commission erred in law by finding that the aid in the form of a DKK 10 million capital injection (in excess of the DKK 500 million authorised by the Planning Decision) is compatible with the internal market.
3. Third plea in law, alleging that the Commission erred in law by finding that the State loans to Femern A/S and A/S Femern Landanlæg have been authorised in the Construction Decision and that the ones granted to A/S Femern Landanlæg do not constitute aid, while those granted to Femern A/S are compatible with the internal market.
4. Fourth plea in law, alleging that the Commission erred in law by finding that the State loans granted in excess of the DKK 1 445 million budget, have been authorised in the Planning Decision and that they constitute State aid that is compatible with the internal market.
5. Fifth plea in law, alleging that the Commission erred in law by finding that the tax advantages do not constitute State aid.
6. Sixth plea in law, alleging that the Commission infringed its obligation to initiate the formal investigation procedure under Article 108(2) TFEU.
7. Seventh plea in law, alleging that the Commission infringed its duty to state reasons, as enshrined in Article 296 TFEU.

Action brought on 8 January 2019 — ClientEarth v EIB

(Case T-9/19)

(2019/C 72/55)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicant: ClientEarth (London, United Kingdom) (represented by: J. Flynn, QC and H. Leith, barrister)

Defendant: European Investment Bank

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul the refusal of the EIB to conduct an internal review pursuant to Article 10 of the Aarhus Regulation <sup>(1)</sup>;
- order the defendant to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on two pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging errors in law in the application of the Aarhus Regulation, with regard to the status of ClientEarth as a non-governmental organisation, the concept of 'administrative act', the definition of measures of individual scope, the legal effects of the EIB Board of Directors' decision, as well as the limits of 'environmental law'.
2. Second plea in law, alleging failure of the defendant to provide adequate reasons as required by Article 296 TFEU.

Action brought on 2 January 2019 — Mutuallidad de la Abogacía and Others v ECB and SRB

(Case T-11/19)

(2019/C 72/56)

Language of the case: Spanish

Parties

Applicants: Mutuallidad de la Abogacía (Madrid, Spain) and 75 other applicants (represented by: R. Pelayo Jiménez, A. Munoz Aranguren and P. Hermida Paredes, lawyers)

Defendants: European Central Bank and Single Resolution Board

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the General Court should:

- Establish the non-contractual liability of the ECB and the SRB as a consequence of the failures specified in the application, and order the defendants to compensate the applicants in respect of the harm suffered, estimated at the financial value of their shares which, according to the SRB's own 'Evaluation 1', amounted to EUR 2,0020217 per share; and, in the alternative, order the defendant institutions to pay compensation equivalent to EUR 0,8442 per share.
- Increase the compensation awarded by compensatory interest calculated at the annual rate of inflation declared by EUROSTAT in Spain, from 6 June 2017 up to the date of judgment, plus default interest (rate set by the ECB for its primary refinancing operations, increased by two percentage points), from the date of judgment awarding compensation for the harm suffered until due payment.
- Order the defendant institutions to pay the costs of the proceedings.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicants rely on two pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging a combination of illicit or negligent actions or omissions on the part of the European Central Bank. In that connection, the applicants claim:
  - Infringement of the principle of legitimate expectations, on account of the ECB, as the institution responsible for conducting the Supervisory Review and Evaluation Process (SREP), having created legitimate expectations on the part of the shareholders of Banco Popular Español.
  - Breach of the obligation of diligence and good administration on the part of the ECB, having failed to adopt the appropriate early intervention and/or recovery measures in respect of Banco Popular Español, S.A., with a failure to fulfil obligations under the Guidelines on early intervention triggers (Article 27(4) of Directive 2014/59).
2. Second plea in law, alleging a combination of illicit or negligent actions on the part of the Single Resolution Board. In that connection, the applicants claim:
  - Infringement of Articles 7 and 13 of Regulation (EU) 806/2014 and Article 3(4) of Directive 2014/59, on account of the SRB's uncoordinated actions with the ECB, as well as the failure to update the Resolution Plan for Banco Popular Español.
  - Breach of the duty of confidentiality on the part of the SRB, with the related infringement of Article 339 TFEU and Article 88(1) of Regulation (EU) 806/2014.
  - Infringement of Article 20 of Regulation (EU) 806/2014, on account of the SRB's refusal to undertake a final valuation of Banco Popular Español, and the related breach of the obligation of diligence and good administration.

Action brought on 10 January 2019 — Activos e Inversiones Monterroso v SRB*(Case T-16/19)

(2019/C 72/58)

Language of the case: SpanishPartiesApplicant: Activos e Inversiones Monterroso, SL (Pantoja, Spain) (represented by: S. Rodríguez Bajón, lawyer)Defendant: Single Resolution Board

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the General Court should:

Take note of the present action for annulment of the decision adopted by the Single Resolution Board of 31 October 2018, in the framework of this procedure [Ares (2017) 61995390] and, the appropriate legal steps having been taken, give judgment annulling the decision of 31 October 2018 and upholding the form of order sought, granting access to all documents included in the relevant administrative file.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on infringement of Article 41 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and of Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 30 May 2001 regarding public access to European Parliament, Council and Commission documents.<sup>(1)</sup>

— In that connection, the applicant argues that, in the present case, protection of the public interest as regards the economic or monetary policy of the European Union or a Member State, protection of the commercial interests of a natural or legal person, protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, protection of the purpose of investigations, or the opposition of the originator of the information, are not applicable as exceptions to the disclosure of documents.

Action brought on 11 January 2019 — Brown v Commission*(Case T-18/19)

(2019/C 72/59)

*Language of the case: EnglishParties

Applicant: Colin M. Brown (Brussels, Belgium) (represented by: I. Van Damme, lawyer)

Defendant: European Commission

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- annul the decision of 19 March 2018 of the Office for the Administration and Payment of Individual Entitlements that the applicant ceased to be entitled to the expatriation allowance and the travel allowance;
- order that the applicant's entitlement to the expatriation allowance and the travel allowance be restored with effect from 1 December 2017;
- order that the allowances which were not paid between 1 December 2017 and the date of re-establishment of the applicant's entitlement be paid to the applicant with interest;
- annul, if it accepts the plea of illegality, the application of Article 4(1)(b) of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations to the Applicant until such time as the Institutions replace it with non-discriminatory provisions;
- order the Commission to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on four pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging an incorrect interpretation of Article 4(1)(a) of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations because the Commission was wrong to interpret that provision as meaning that a right to an expatriation allowance, acquired based on the place of origin and center of interests of an official in another Member State prior to his recruitment, is to be reassessed in case the official concerned subsequently acquires the nationality of the Member State where he remains employed.
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the decision of 19 March 2018 discriminates against the applicant by subjecting his entitlement to the expatriation allowance to the conditions laid down in Article 4(1)(b) of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations.
3. Third plea in law, alleging that, should the General Court find that the Commission was correct to determine the applicant's entitlement to the expatriation allowance on the basis of Article 4(1)(b) of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations, the Commission nevertheless failed to interpret that provision in accordance with the principle of non-discrimination.
4. Fourth plea in law, alleging, in the alternative, that, if all of three other pleas are rejected, Article 4(1) of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations is illegal and inapplicable in the sense that, and in so far as, it produces unjustified discrimination as regards persons in the situation of the applicant, for the reasons advanced in support of the second plea.

Action brought on 15 January 2019 — Pilatus Bank and Pilatus Holding v ECB

(Case T-27/19)

(2019/C 72/60)

Language of the case: English

Parties

Applicants: Pilatus Bank plc (Ta'Xbiex, Malta) and Pilatus Holding ltd. (Ta'Xbiex) (represented by: O. Behrends, L. Feddern and M. Kirchner, lawyers)

Defendant: European Central Bank

Form of order sought

The applicants claim that the Court should:

- annul the ECB's decisions dated 2 November 2018 and send to Pilatus Bank plc. on 5 November 2018 regarding the withdrawal of the banking license of Pilatus Bank;
- order the Defendant to pay all costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicants rely on eleven pleas in law.

1. First plea in law, alleging that the ECB has failed to assume its responsibilities pursuant to Art. 14(5) of the SSM Regulation.<sup>(1)</sup>
2. Second plea in law, alleging that the ECB erroneously assumed a legal ground for a license withdrawal.

3. Third plea in law, alleging that the ECB failed to consider appropriately the discretionary nature of the decision.
4. Fourth plea in law, alleging that the ECB failed to assess the relevant facts and failed to do so impartially and objectively.
5. Fifth plea in law, alleging that the ECB violated the principle of proportionality.
6. Sixth plea in law, alleging that the ECB violated the nemo auditur principle.
7. Seventh plea in law, alleging that the ECB erred in law with respect to its considerations in connection with the presumption of innocence.
8. Eighth plea in law, alleging that the ECB violated the principal of equal treatment and acted in a discriminatory manner.
9. Ninth plea in law, alleging that the ECB violated Art. 19 and Recital 75 SSM Regulation and committed a détournement de pouvoir.
10. Tenth plea in law, alleging that the ECB violated the Applicants' right of defence and their right to be heard.
11. Eleventh plea in law, alleging that the ECB failed to provide an adequately reasoned decision.
