Acknowledgements. We thank the HESS editor, the reviewers, and the participants of the lively discussion in HESSD for their comments that helped to improve the paper. We acknowledge the financial support of the research from the ANR C-ARCHIVES and the Pole ECLA (French Research Organization in Lake Ecology). We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the long-term limnological survey from the Communauté de Communes du Lac d’Aiguebelette (CCLA), the Commission internationale pour la protection des eaux du Léman (CIPEL), the Comité Intercommunautaire pour l’Assainissement du Lac du Bourget (CISALB), and the Syndicat Mixte du Lac d’Annecy (SILA). We would like to thank the French Observatory of LAKes of the platform Analyses et Expérimentations pour les Ecosystèmes (OLA-ANAEE) for providing the long-term limnological data and Victor Frossard from CARRTEL for thorough advances on the paper conception. We also
