

Byron Jankeeparsad, CFA

Financial Sector Analyst at FirstRand Group

Byron is a distinguished professional with a career history spanning over a decade in the realm of finance. He is currently the Financial Sector Analyst at FirstRand Group, one of the largest integrated financial services businesses across the African continent. In his current role, he performs strategic research into South African listed financial services organisations within the banking, insurance and asset management industries.

Driven by a profound commitment to ethics in financial markets, he upholds the principles of integrity, transparency and accountability in all his endeavours. He recognises that ethical conduct is not only a moral imperative but also a cornerstone of trust and sustainability in the financial industry.

He is truly passionate about education and is a Chartered Accountant, CFA Charterholder and Certified Financial Risk Manager. He currently serves as a Committee Member on the Global Association of Risk Practitioners (GARP) Johannesburg Chapter, which aims to spread awareness about risk management in financial markets. Beyond his professional endeavours, he has a keen interest in technical analysis and investment portfolio management. These interests not only underscore his dedication to the field but also reflects his commitment to lifelong learning.
