UNITED TO HOUSE LOS ANGELES (ULA) EMERGENCY RENTERS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

About the program:

The City of Los Angeles United to House Los Angeles (ULA) Emergency Renters Assistance Program will provide up to six months of rental arrears to low-income residential renters who are at risk of homelessness due to unpaid rent as a result of COVID-19 or other financial hardship.

To be eligible, a household must be obligated to pay rent on a residential dwelling and meet the following requirements:

1. Be a resident of the City of Los Angeles, regardless of immigration status. To verify if you live in the City of Los Angeles, go to neighborhoodla.lacity.org.
2. One or more individuals within the household have experienced a loss of employment, reduction in household income, incurred significant costs, or experienced other financial hardship between March 2020 to present.
3. Have unpaid rent due to their current landlord for any month(s) between April 2020 to present.
4. The current household income is at or below 80% of the area median income (AMI).
