Prepared by SpacePolicyOnline.com. Table reflects latest action by relevant group as of the date shown at the top of this fact sheet. FY = fiscal year. CY = calendar year. Dates are in DD/MM/YR format. FY=Fiscal Year. CY=Calendar Year.

This is not a comprehensive list. It shows selected bills on which action appears likely or otherwise are of special interest. Historical versions of this fact sheet are available on SpacePolicyOnline.com for the 111th, 112th, 113th, 114th and 115th Congresses (the years 2009-2010, 2011-2012, 2013-2014, 2015-2016, and 2017-2018 respectively).

For an explanation of the difference between an authorization and an appropriation, see our "What's a Markup" Fact Sheet.

"Ord. Rpt." means the bill was "ordered reported" from the committee -- the committee approved it and ordered that it be reported to the House or Senate, but the report has not been filed yet, so there is no report number. " \mathbf{Skld} " - scheduled. $\mathbf{N/A}$ - no action or not applicable

Note 1. In an attempt to end the government shutdown which was ongoing when the 116th Congress convened, House Democrats initially passed the Senate versions of seven FY2019 appropriations bills that did not clear the 115th Congress. On January 3, the first day of the new Congress, they passed six of them merged into a single "consolidated" appropriations bill, H.R. 21. It includes the Commerce-Justice-Science (CJS) bill that funds NASA and NOAA and the Transportation-HUD (THUD) bill that funds FAA's Office of Commercial Space Transportation. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell refused to bring it up in the Senate because he knew President Trump would not sign it. The House then proceeded to pass the Senate version of the FY2019 THUD bill (and other bills, but not CJS) separately, hoping the Senate might take them up piecemeal. HR. 267 is the Senate-passed version of the FY2019 THUD bill from last year. These bills became irrelevant after Congress passed H.J. Res. 31, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, so no longer are included in this fact sheet.
