NEWSLETTER
JUNE 2020

Dear Colleagues and Partners,

First of all, we hope that you are all doing well and keeping safe.

Since our last newsletter was published in February, the COVID-19 outbreak has caused an unprecedented situation for the whole world, and our thoughts are with the people and organisations who have been severely affected.

The global spread of the virus led to the postponement of the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020...

Yours sincerely,

Pâquerette Girard Zappelli

IOC Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer

UCI UPDATES ITS BETTING SPONSORING RULES

The Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI) recently updated its betting sponsorship rules in order to prevent any conflict of interests that might undermine the integrity and credibility of competitions. Sponsorship is prohibited with betting companies which cannot guarantee robust integrity and impartiality. The updated regulations require the sponsorship contract to explicitly prohibit the betting company from collecting insider information and/or any other information that could be used to manipulate a cycling event, and from participating in any decision of a sporting nature.

NEXT IPACS STEERING COMMITTEE MEETING

The next Steering Committee meeting of the International Partnership Against Corruption in Sport (IPACS) will be held in the week of 16 November 2020 in Vienna, Austria. Organised by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), the meeting will serve to present and endorse the new IPACS Governance Guidelines and provide for updates from the IPACS Task Forces. Depending on the situation later this year, the meeting may be held virtually. Check out the IPACS calendar for updates.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that there is a new executive education certificate in the Regulation of Global Sport, offered by the University of Lausanne (UNIL)? The IOC Ethics and Compliance team presented during the e-learning session focusing on “Integrity and Corruption in Global Sport”, held on 7 May. The session provided insights into the work of the IPACS and an overview of the IOC’s initiatives in the prevention of competition manipulation.
