THE SECRETARY-GENERAL'S LETTER OF INVITATION

14 April 2023

Excellency/Your Majesty,

In my capacity as the depositary of more than six hundred multilateral treaties, I have the honour to write to encourage the participation of your State in the 2023 Treaty Event. This initiative, launched in 2000, has proven successful in the promotion of participation in the multilateral treaty framework of the United Nations. This year's Treaty Event will take place from 19 to 22 September 2023, at United Nations Headquarters in New York, in conjunction with the General Debate of the seventy-eighth session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The theme of the 2023 Treaty Event will be "Towards universal participation in multilateral environmental agreements for a healthy planet". The success of the recovery of the ozone layer through universal participation in the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer has been justly celebrated, and I wish to encourage universal participation in all the multilateral environmental agreements for which I serve as depositary at the upcoming Treaty Event. The triple crises of climate disruption, biodiversity loss and pollution destroying our planet require our collective response. The Paris Agreement on Climate Change, the Kigali Amendment to the Montreal Protocol, the Convention on Biological Diversity, and others, are among the multilateral environmental agreements highlighted this year which aim to address these global concerns. A list of highlighted treaties is enclosed for your consideration.

I wish to extend my invitation for your State to make use of the Treaty Event by signing on to the highlighted treaties, and by depositing instruments of ratification or accession to those treaties.

Let me emphasize that the Treaty Event may be used to take action, not only on the treaties referred to above, but also on any other treaty of which I am the depositary. They cover a diversity of areas, such as the protection of human rights, including gender equality, the law of the sea, and disarmament. A complete list of the multilateral treaties deposited with me is available on the website of the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs (<https://treaties.un.org>).

Should your State wish to participate in the 2023 Treaty Event, I would be grateful if you could inform the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, by 8 September 2023, of your intention to sign, ratify or accede to any of the treaties of which I am the depositary, so that the necessary arrangements may be made.

Please accept, Excellency/Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

PROCEDURAL INFORMATION LETTER FROM THE LEGAL COUNSEL

25 April 2023

Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the Secretary-General's letter dated 14 April 2023 inviting Governments to participate in this year's Treaty Event, which will be held from 19 to 22 September 2023 at the United Nations Headquarters in New York, in conjunction with the general debate of the seventy-eighth session of the General Assembly.

The theme of the 2023 Treaty Event will be "Towards universal participation in multilateral environmental agreements for a healthy planet" and will highlight multilateral environmental agreements deposited with the Secretary-General. In addition to the protection of the environment, highlighted treaties cover a number of areas of global concern, including human rights, gender equality, the law of the sea, and disarmament. The Treaty Event may also be used to sign and ratify or accede to any treaty for which the Secretary-General acts as depositary.

It is noted that, consistent with the rules of international law and the practice of the Secretary-General as depositary of multilateral treaties, a Head of State, Head of Government or Minister of Foreign Affairs does not require full powers to execute a treaty action in person.

Where a signature of a treaty deposited with the Secretary-General is to be undertaken by a person other than the Head of State, the Head of Government or the Minister of Foreign Affairs, duly executed full powers are necessary.

The Secretary-General's requirements for a valid instrument of full powers include the following:

- Title of the treaty;
- Full name and title of the person duly authorized to sign the treaty concerned;
- Date and place of signature; and
- Signature of the Head of State, Head of Government or Minister for Affairs.

Instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession must also be issued and signed by one of the above three authorities and should include all declarations and reservations.

Full powers and instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession should be submitted for verification to the Treaty Section well in advance of the intended date of the relevant treaty action. Further information on full powers and instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession can be obtained from the Treaty Handbook. This document and other publications of the Treaty Section are available online at <https://treaties.un.org>. The website also provides updated information on the status of all treaties deposited with the Secretary-General. Annexed hereto please find an electronic copy of the 2023 Treaty Event publication for your reference.

In order to participate, kindly advise before 8 September 2023 on your Government's intention to sign, ratify or accede to any of the multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General, which would assist the Treaty Section in making the necessary arrangements. It is requested that appointments be made by contacting the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs (telephone: (212) 963-5047; e-mail: treatysection@un.org).

We look forward to your Government's participation in the 2023 Treaty Event.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs and United Nations Legal Counsel
