Good Afternoon Detective Brugger,

Thanks for your note. We hope to have an opportunity to revisit a partnership with LAPD soon. In the meantime, it always helps to pass along the feedback.

Please let me know if there is anything we can do to help.

Thank you,
Andrew

Thank you for the opportunity to utilize Dataminr First Alert. We found it to be a very useful tool for our work at the Situational Awareness Watch unit. Unfortunately, it appears budget constraints will not allow us to move forward, but my colleagues here at the JRIC did appreciate the generous support you provided to us.

Thank you, Jeff

Good Morning LAPD Team,

Thank you for participating in the Datamir First Alert trial and for providing feedback. We have appreciated the opportunity to support the important public safety mission of LAPD.

Your Datamir First Alert account will be deactivated tomorrow, August 16th at 12 PM PDT. You may continue to use your account normally until that point.

If you would like to share additional feedback on the product or purchase a Datamir account, please contact tplunkett@datamir.com.

Thank you,
Andrew & Tim
