

CJCJ Cameo House Program Expectations

- 1. All new residents will be on automatic 90-day orientation. During this time, the following is not permitted:
 - No visitations
 - No outside travel except appointments, NA/AA meetings, and court with prior authorization. The resident must be accompanied by a Cameo House staff member
- 2. There will be no visits for the first 30 days
- 3. There are to be no war stories or any kind of language that is not productive for recovery
- 4. If you have a verifiable or valid issue involving Cameo House staff members, you are welcome to share it with the Program Director when she is on-site. It is unacceptable to discuss these issues with any other staff or residents
- 5. No loaning or borrowing of any personal property including cell phones
- 6. No socializing or going into the private living quarters of any other resident
- 7. Residents need to complete all chores that are assigned at the time they are assigned to be done
- 8. Residents are required to attend all mandatory groups, meetings, and therapy. During our in-house in-person groups, phones are to be left in your rooms
- 9. Residents living quarters are to be inspection-ready everyday
- 10. Weekday curfew (unless verifiable work schedule) Su-Th 10 pm, F-Sa 11 pm. This applies to residents who have completed the 90-day orientation
- 11. When eligible, all weekend passes must be submitted to the case managers Wednesday, one week in advance
- 12. Meals- each resident is expected to assist the cook in all meals
- 13. Televisions can be utilized after 8 pm on weeknights. Usually, chores and groups are completed by then. Children have priority in regard to TV time.
- 14. Personal food and drinks have to be properly labeled and stored in containers or Ziploc bags to prevent pest infestations