Recap of public comments submitted to:

The National Organic Standards Board

October 2012 meeting

Compiled by the staff of The Cornucopia Institute

Livestock Subcommittee

Nonanoic Acid

Motion: To add Nonanoic to the National List 205.603

Petitioned: Stratacor, Inc. / Purpose: Control ectoparasites in cattle and horses.

|                        | Support                             | Oppose                   |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | Peter Oberem, DVM, Afrivet Business | 3 citizens/farmers       |
|                        | Management, Ltd, Representing the   |                          |
|                        | South African Animal Health         |                          |
|                        | Association                         |                          |
| Public interest groups | None                                | Beyond Pesticides        |
|                        |                                     | The Cornucopia Institute |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | Emery Oleochemicals, Ann Petersman  |                          |
|                        | Emery Oleochemicals, Chris Ciolino  |                          |

Pet Food Amino Acids

Motion: To add ALL amino acids to the National List 205.603 Petitioned: Pet Food Institute / Purpose: nutritional supplementation

|                        | Support                     | Oppose                                 |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|--|
| Farmers/Citizens       | None                        | 60 citizens/farmers                    |
|                        |                             | 7418 signatures on the petition by OCA |
| Public interest groups | None                        | Beyond Pesticides                      |
|                        |                             | The Cornucopia Institute               |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | Castor and Pollux Pet Works | None                                   |
|                        | Proctor and Gamble          |  |
|                        | Lortscher Agri Services     |  |
| Trade Associations     | Pet Food Institute          | None                                   |

Pet Food Amino Acids - Taurine

Motion: To add only synthetic Taurine to the National List 205.603

Petitioned: LS (the petitioner requested all amino acids be listed) / Purpose: nutritional supplement for cats

|                        | Support  | Oppose                                 | Concerns*   |
|------------------------|--|--|-------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | None   | 60 citizens/farmers                    |             |
|                        |  | 7418 signatures on the petition by OCA |             |
| Public interest groups | None   | Beyond Pesticides                      |             |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | Castor and Pollux Pet Works (all amino acids) Proctor and Gamble (all amino acids) Lortscher Agri Services (all amino acids) | None                                   |             |
| Trade Associations     | Pet Food Institute Organic Trade Association   | None                                   |             |
| Certifiers             | None   | None                                   | CCOFQAI |

*Groups raising concern about regulating pet foods under livestock regulations

Crops Subcommittee

Biodegradable Bioplastic mulch film

Motion: To add Biodegradable Bioplastic Biobased mulch film to 205.601(b)(2)(iii) to the National List Proposed Annotation:

List on §205.601(b)(2) Mulches: (iii) Biodegradable biobased bioplastic mulch meeting the following criteria: (A) Completely biodegradable as shown by: 1) meeting the requirements of ASTM Standard D6400 or D6868 specifications, or of other international standard specifications with essentially identical criteria, i.e. EN 13432, EN 14995, ISO 17088; and 2) showing at least 90% biodegradation absolute or relative to microcrystalline cellulose in less than two years, in soil, tested according to ISO 17556 or ASTM 5988; (B) Biobased certified using the ASTM D6866 method; (C) Must be produced without excluded methods; (D) Must be produced without engineered nanomaterials; and (E) Grower must take appropriate actions to ensure complete degradation at the end of each growing or harvest season.

Petitioned: BPI Biodegradable Products Institute / Purpose: Weed control

|                        | Support                              | Oppose                    | Needs further research         |
|------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | 151 citizens/farmers                 | 2 citizens/farmers        |                                |
| Public interest groups | Nature Conservancy                   | Center for Food Safety    | Beyond Pesticides              |
|                        |                                      | Food and Water Watch      | The Cornucopia Institute       |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | BPI Biodegradable Products Institute | CROPP Organic Valley Coop |                                |
|                        | Novamont (Mater-bi)                  | Organically Grown Company |                                |
|                        | Dubois Agrinovation (Lise Martin)    |                           |                                |
| Trade Associations     | Organic Trade Association            |                           |                                |
|                        | USDA BioPreferred Program (Kate      |                           |                                |
|                        | Lewis)                               |                           |                                |
| Certifiers             | NOFA-Vermont                         |                           | California Certified Organic   |
|                        | Oregon Tilth Certified Organic       |                           | Farmers                        |
|                        |                                      |                           | Organic Materials Review       |
|                        |                                      |                           | Institute                      |
|                        |                                      |                           | Pennsylvania Certified Organic |

Ferric Phosphate

Motion: to remove ferric phosphate from the National List Petitioned: Steptoe & Johnson Law Firm / Purpose: slug control

|                        | Support                                    | Oppose   | Allow ferric phosphate but review EDTA |
|------------------------|--|--|--|
| Farmers/Citizens       | 10 citizens/farmers                        | 12 citizens/farmers Oahu Army Natural Resource Program | 1 farmer                               |
| Public interest groups | The Cornucopia Institute Beyond Pesticides |  | National Organic Coalition             |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | Lonza, Inc.                                | Neudorff North America                                 | None                                   |
| Certifiers             | None                                       | Pennsylvania CertifiedOrganic                      | CCOF                                   |

Oxidized lignite

Motion: To add PGML to the National List section 205.601(j)

Petitioned: SHAC Environmental Products, Inc. / Purpose: Soil amendment

|                        | Support                     | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | None                        | 93 citizens/farmers           |
| Public interest groups | None                        | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                             | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                             | Organic Consumers Association |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | Organically Grown Company   | None                          |
|                        | SHAC Environmental Products |                               |

PGML

Motion: To add PGML to the National List section 205.601 (e)

Petitioned: Otsuka Chemical Company, Ltd. / Purpose: Acaricide on crops

|                        | Support | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | None    | 85 citizens/farmers           |
| Public interest groups | None    | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |         | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |         | Organic Consumers Association |

Rotenone

Motion: To add rotenone to the National List section 205.602as a prohibited natural substance

Purpose: Insecticide

|                        | Support - remove rotenone from the | Oppose - Keep rotenone on the NL     |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
|                        | NL                                 |                                      |
| Farmers/Citizens       | 6 citizens/farmers                 | None                                 |
| Public interest groups | Beyond Pesticides                  | None                                 |
|                        | The Cornucopia Institute           |                                      |
|                        | National Organic Coalition         |                                      |
| Handlers               | Organically Grown Company          | Dole Fresh Fruit International, Ltd. |
| Trade Associations     | None                               | ASOBAN - Association of banana       |
|                        |                                    | growers in Peru                      |
|                        |                                    | ASOGUABO - Association of banana     |
|                        |                                    | growers in Ecuador                   |
|                        |                                    | ASOCIACION REGIONAL DE PEQUENOS      |
|                        |                                    | PRODUCTORES BANANEROS                |
|                        |                                    | CERRO AZUL Ecuador                   |
| Certifiers             | Pennsylvania Certified Organic     | None                                 |

Sulfuric Acid

Motion: To add sulfuric acid to the National List section 205.601

Petitioned: BioStar Systems, LLC / Purpose: Stabilize anaerobically digested poultry manure

|                        | Support | Oppose                        |  |
|------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|--|
| Farmers/Citizens       | None    | 94 citizens/farmers           |  |
|                        |         | 7418 signatures on a petition |  |
| Public interest groups | None    | Beyond Pesticides             |  |
|                        |         | The Cornucopia Institute      |  |
|                        |         | Organic Consumers Association |  |

Handling Subcommittee

Ascorbyl Palmitate

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use as a preservative in infant formula Petitioned by: the International Formula Council / Purpose: preservative

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Farmers/Citizens       | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           | None                          |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      | None                          |

Beta Carotene

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use as a preservative in infant formula Petitioned: the International Formula Council / Purpose: preservative

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Citizens               | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           |                               |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      |                               |

Lutein

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605

Petitioned: by Kemin Foods / Purpose: nutritional supplement in infant formula

|                        | Support                                     | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|---|-------------------------------|
| Citizens/Scientists    | Dr. Elizabeth Johnson -Tufts (consultant to | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | petitioner)                                 | 7418 signatures on a petition |
|                        | Dr. Richard Theuer (industry consultant)    |                               |
| Public interest groups | None  | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |   | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |   | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |   | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |   | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers/Manufacturers | The Hain Celestial Group                    | None                          |
|                        | Kemin Foods                                 |                               |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council               | None                          |

Lycopene

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use in infant formula

Petitioned: the International Formula Council / Purpose: nutritional supplementation

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Citizens               | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           | None                          |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      | None                          |

L-carnitine

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use in infant formula only

Petitioned: International Formula Council / Purpose: amino acid for use in infant formula

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Citizens               | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           | None                          |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      | None                          |

Raising issue of essentiality in soy-based formula only: The Cornucopia Institute

L-methionine

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use only in infant formula made with isolated soy protein

Petitioned: International Formula Council / Purpose: amino acid – prevent "failure to thrive" in infants fed soy-based formula

| 1 cutofica: fifter flational 1 of fliata doubles | 7 tarpose: ammo acia prevent ianare t | o thrive in manes lea soy basea formala |
|--|---------------------------------------|---|
|  | Support                               | Oppose                                  |
| Citizens   | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry    | 78 citizens                             |
|  | consultant)                           | 7418 signatures on a petition           |
| Public interest groups                           | None                                  | Beyond Pesticides                       |
|  |                                       | Center for Food Safety                  |
|  |                                       | Food and Water Watch                    |
|  |                                       | National Organic Coalition              |
| Handlers   | The Hain Celestial Group              | None                                    |
| Trade Associations                               | International Formula Council         | None                                    |

Raising issue of essentiality in soy-based formula: The Cornucopia Institute

Nucleotides

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605.

Proposed annotation: Nucleotides—allowed for infant formulas only in the "organic" and "made with organic categories".

Nucleotides are allowed for the "made with organic claim" on all other food products. Petitioned: International Formula Council / Purpose: nutritional supplementation

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Citizens               | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           | None                          |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      | None                          |

Taurine

Motion: To add to the National List 205.605 for use in infant formula only

Petitioned: International Formula Council / Purpose: nutritional supplementation

|                        | Support                            | Oppose                        |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Citizens               | 1 citizen (Richard Theuer—industry | 78 citizens                   |
|                        | consultant)                        | 7418 signatures on a petition |
| Public interest groups | None                               | Beyond Pesticides             |
|                        |                                    | Center for Food Safety        |
|                        |                                    | The Cornucopia Institute      |
|                        |                                    | Food and Water Watch          |
|                        |                                    | National Organic Coalition    |
| Handlers               | The Hain Celestial Group           | None                          |
| Trade Associations     | International Formula Council      | None                          |