Religious Order	Initials	Website	Mission / How Order Relates to SCLAMP
Daughters of Charity	DC	https://daughtersofcharity.org/	The Daughters of Charity are a community of women who devote our lives to serving the poorest and most abandoned individuals in today's society. We minister in the everyday worlds of the poor and the marginalized.
Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary	RSHM	https://rshm.org/	The challenge of the gospel and the spirit of faith and zeal which marked our founders, and our founding sisters, urges us to respond to the needs of our time and to work with others in action for evangelical justice. At the same time, we place ourselves and our resources at the service of those who are most in need of justice, especially women and children, enabling the powerless, the deprived, the marginalized, and the voiceless to work effectively for their own development and liberation.
Sisters of Notre Dame	SND	https://sndusa.org/	Called to respond to the cry of the needy, we send women to schools, parishes, shelters, and hospitals, not only in the Archdioceses of the U.S. but also in the rural area of Uganda, Africa.
Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet	CSJ	https://csjcarondelet.org/	Our mission is to form loving relationships with ourselves, with God, within community, Church, society, and all creation. We work toward this mission through the ministries of prayer, direct service, consciousness-raising, and systemic change.
Sisters of St. Louis	SSL	https://www.stlouissisters.org/	The mission of the Sisters of St. Louis is motivated primarily by the Mission of Christ and our Charism "Sint Unum – May all be One". Our Charism calls us to grow towards oneness in Christ and to foster right relationships with God and the whole of creation. In the spirit of Sint Unum, we work towards transforming unjust structures so that women, children and the marginalized can take their rightful place in family, church, and society.
Sisters of the Holy Faith	CHF	https://holyfaithsisters.org/	We are a religious congregation of Roman Catholic women living and working in four continents. Our purpose is to proclaim by word and action the love and truth of Jesus to the people of our day and to collaborate in creating a just world. In our ministries of education, faith development, pastoral work, advocacy and presence we try to make the poor and marginalized central in our lives and give priority to them in our decision making and allocation of resources.
Sisters of the Holy Family	SHF	https://holyfamilysisters.org/	Called to respond to the cry of the needy, we send women to schools, parishes, shelters, and hospitals, not only in the Archdioceses of the U.S. but also in the rural area of Uganda, Africa.
Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary	SNJM	https://snjm.org/en/	By our mission, we seek the full development of the human person through education, social justice, contemplation, and the arts, especially with people who are impoverished and marginalized.
Society of the Holy Child Jesus	SHCJ	https://www.shcj.org/	As Sisters of the Holy Child we express our belief that God lives and acts in us and through us in the world by offering a broad range of services and ministries in the diverse cultures in which we live.
