

PERIODICALS

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS TO THE HANDBOOK OF TEXAS ONLINE

The following guidelines are intended for contributors writing about periodicals in Texas. (Entries about newspapers are described in separate guidelines.) Not every heading is applicable to every subject, and writers are encouraged to include information unique to their subjects. The order of topics should generally follow the sequence outlined below, but may vary somewhat as the subject demands. Writers should include the distinguishing features of a periodical, its accomplishments, and distinguished people who have been involved with it. Writers of articles on almanacs, directories, and other periodically revised works can extrapolate guidelines from these.

The Handbook is meant to serve as the principal reference work for all significant aspects of Texas studies and is encyclopedic in scope. All entries should be concise, factual, informative, authoritative, and fully documented.

1. Founding date; founders
2. Chief affiliation; ownership
3. Publisher
4. Official publication of an organization?
5. Years of publication; frequency of publication, if not obvious (weekly, quarterly, etc.)
6. Place of publication
7. Nature of subscribers, if limited
8. Number of pages, format
9. Editors; editorial policies; political leanings, if noteworthy; locus of control of policies
10. Contents: subjects addressed, types of articles, literary genres, writers featured, illustrations, etc.
11. Changes
12. Circulation history
13. Special-subject, extra, or commemorative issues
14. Bibliography and notes

Each entry in the Handbook appears over the author's name. We believe that every article will be considered a standard source of information for decades. Because we know that our contributors share our desire to adhere to the most rigorous scholarly standards, we have adopted the policy of checking all factual material to be printed in the new edition. This means that we need specific footnotes, with complete publication information, for all of the facts in an article. We regret the inconvenience which this causes, but only by this double check can we be assured that each entry will be the credit to its author that we wish it to be. Furthermore, the extra effort will ultimately save our small staff hundreds of hours and will earn the heartfelt gratitude of our research assistants.

A brief bibliography should be included with each article. We encourage contributors to list primary as well as secondary sources. The list of works should be highly selective; if possible, it should include recent works of fundamental importance which can lead a reader to further publications, as well as the location of major archival collections.

Please send 2 DOUBLE-SPACED copies of each manuscript. We would prefer to have the entries submitted by email to brett.derbes@tshaonline.org or by mail to the address below on a CD or flash drive in one of the following formats: Word 97 or later (.doc) or for MAC users, Rich Text Format (.rtf).

All articles become the copyrighted property of the Texas State Historical Association when they are received. They will be edited. The association retains the right of disposition of all manuscripts.

Inquiries and articles should be sent to:

Managing Editor
The Handbook of Texas
Texas State Historical Association
3001 Lake Austin Blvd.
Suite 3.116
Austin, TX 78703